Guthrie High School Names New Girls Basketball Coach

Guthrie Public Schools officially named Breck Clark as it's new Head Girls Basketball Coach. She replaces Malcolm Roberts who recently announced his resignation from the post after three seasons.

Clark will join the GHS staff after serving as an Assistant Girls Basketball Coach at Suburban Conference rival El Reno. Prior to starting her coaching career, she served as a personal trainer/fitness advisor for two years. Clark also coaches a summer AAU Boys Basketball team.

Clark is a native of the Shawnee area and a 2013 Dale High School graduate. Following high school, she continued her basketball career playing for Northern Oklahoma College – Enid from 2013-15 while also earning an Associates Degree. After Junior College, Clark played for the University of Texas at Arlington Lady Mavericks. While at UTA, she earned a Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Arts.

Quotes from new GHS Girls Basketball Coach Breck Clark:

"I'm so excited to join Guthrie Public Schools as the new Head Girls Basketball Coach. Guthrie has a lot of potential to be successful, and I can't wait to make an impact on the program and the student-athletes."

"It's been a goal of mine ever since I graduated college to lead my own team. I'm thankful and blessed Guthrie has given me this opportunity."

Quotes from Guthrie Superintendent of Schools Dr. Mike Simpson:

"Coach Clark has served as an assistant at a very successful high school program. Additionally, she has played for outstanding coaches at the high school and college level. I'm excited for what she will bring to our athletic department and our students."
